Management's responsibility for the financial statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these financial statements in accordance with International Financial Reporting Standards adopted by the European Union, and for such internal control as management determines is necessary to enable the preparation of financial statements that are free from material misstatements due to fraud or error, and for selection and application of appropriate accounting policies; and making accounting estimates that are reasonable in the particular circumstances.

Auditor's responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with professional requirements of the International Standards on Auditing. Those standards require that we comply with ethical requirements and that the audit must be planned and carried out so that we obtain reasonable assurance whether the financial statements are free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement, deviations and discrepancies in the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessment, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statement of the entity in order to develop audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the entity's internal control. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

An audit opinion

As a result, we certify that the financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of BULGARSKA ROSA PLC Karlovo as of December 31, 2014, and its financial performance and cash flows for the year then ended in accordance with international financial Reporting Standards as adopted by the European Union.

A Paragraph Emphasis of Matter

Without implying any reservations, we draw attention to that for the presented in the financial statements trade receivables and payables haven't been received any confirmations from counterparties in the amount required. We did not receive enough evidence and through alternative procedures regarding presented in the financial statements values of these assets and liabilities.
